Circular

Series of complaints have been received in this office, through the medium of which it has been highlighted that certain unregistered Tour Operators are announcing packages for Hajj & Umrah through various advertisements in Newspapers. Consequent upon, it has also been learnt that large number of people are getting attracted to such unregistered Tour Operators without knowing the ramification. It is therefore, felt expedient to inform general public that they may not get attracted of any such announcements/ads. Besides, all the Deputy Commissioners of Kashmir Division will also remain alive to such complaints and take stern action as warranted under rules, against unregistered Tour Operators, if the instance of such nature are experienced in their District.
